Reliable, unbiased and professional at all times

By outsourcing Background Screening to a Government Licensed Organisation with professional indemnity insurance, you are protected from potential risks. It is important that corporations, government departments and agencies ensure that they are taking steps to minimise risk and protect valuable reputations. Damage to organisations caused by failing to undertake appropriate background checks can arise in many forms and can cause significant hardship and embarrassment for the organisation.

When conducting background checks, accuracy and appropriate evaluation of information obtained is critical. IDS Group adheres to strict quality assurance guidelines and procedures, which ensures that information gathered is accurate and relates to the subject being screened.

All information is obtained by legal methods and sources and where required consent of the individual will be sought.
